What does Atheism get you?

~Not packing the family into the SUV and driving 30 minutes to church every Sunday:
Save $10 in gas a week... & gain free time.

~Not giving tithings to people who threaten you with eternal damnation if you don't give:
Save $20 a week... & regain your dignity.

~Never needing to lie to your kids again about how a fatherly sky wizard loves them SO much that he will torture them forever if they don't love him back: Absolutely Priceless!
